

RSPCA Qld Prosecution Results 2006/2007

Pros No	Details of Offence	Outcome*	Fine	Costs
1	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Ravenshoe woman failed to provide treatment for a fracture to her dog's leg.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$846.60
2	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which two Wellington Point women failed to provide food to their dog, resulting in it being too weak to stand.	Guilty	100 hours Comm service	$315.40
3	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Kingston woman failed to treat a disease with which her dog was afflicted.	Guilty	$1,750.00	$315.40
4	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Carole Park woman failed to provide treatment for a diaphragmatic hernia and a fracture to her kitten's leg.	Guilty	$750.00	$410.40
5	Breach of Duty of Care offence and Abandonment offence in which a Durack man failed to provide treatment to his dog for periodontal disease and subsequently abandoned both his dogs.	Guilty	$1,250.00	$1,336.81
6	Cruelty offence in which a Biggera Waters man hit his partner's Chihuahua causing a brain haemorrhage.	Guilty	$600.00	$315.40
7	Cruelty offence in which a Holland Park West woman wrapped a Miniature Fox Terrier inside three garbage bags and placed it inside a wheelie bin, resulting in its death.	Guilty	$2,500.00	$2,011.40
8	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Bundamba woman failed to provide treatment for a tumour on her dog's face.	Guilty	$500.00	$315.40
9	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Enoggera woman failed to provide treatment for deep wounds on her cat's leg.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$1,184.92
10	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Blenheim woman failed to provide treatment for her donkey's laminitis.	Guilty	$500.00	$1,913.65
11	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Stanthorpe woman failed to provide appropriate food to two of her dogs and failed to exercise one dog.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$315.40
12	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Warwick man failed to provide appropriate food to his two Great Danes.	Withdrawn	-	-
"	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Warwick woman failed to provide appropriate food to her two Great Danes.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$315.40
13	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Annerley man failed to provide treatment for his cat's skin cancer resulting in the cancer advancing to a stage where it involved bone, cartilage, skin and mucosal loss to the cat's face.	Guilty	$1,000.00	$541.00
14	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Ipswich woman and NSW man failed to provide treatment for demodectic mange with which their dog was afflicted.	Guilty	$500.00	$367.50
"	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Ipswich woman and NSW man failed to provide treatment for demodectic mange with which their dog was afflicted.	Guilty	$500.00	$367.50
15	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Camira woman failed to provide food or treatment to her kitten.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$430.40
16	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Bowen man failed to provide food and treatment to his dog for its cancer.	Guilty	$900.00	$316.50

*Outcome as of 30 June 2007

RSPCA Qld Prosecution Results 2006/2007

Pros No	Details of Offence	Outcome*	Fine	Costs
17	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Dinmore woman failed to provide treatment for a fractured leg which her cat had suffered.	Guilty	$800.00	$732.00
18	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Mt Gravatt woman failed to provide treatment for her dog's broken leg.	Guilty	$1,250.00	$315.40
19	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Kurrimine Beach man failed to provide his Silky Terrier with appropriate food or treatment for anaemia.	Guilty	$1,200.00	$495.00
20	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Mount Warren Park couple failed to provide an Eastern Grey Kangaroo with appropriate food or treatment for an injury.	Guilty	$500.00	$191.50
"	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Mount Warren Park couple failed to provide an Eastern Grey Kangaroo with appropriate food or treatment for an injury.	Guilty	$500.00	$191.50
21	Abandonment offence in which a Rockhampton man left four kittens in a Christmas hamper box outside a closed pet shop, resulting in the kittens being stressed and dehydrated.	Guilty	$400.00	$420.00
22	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a El Arish woman failed to provide appropriate food and water to her emaciated and dehydrated dog and puppies and failed to provide treatment to one puppy for conjunctivitis and an abscess which resulted in the pup requiring euthanasia.	Guilty	$800.00	$315.40
23	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Springfield Lakes man failed to provide appropriate food to his chickens resulting in the death of three of them.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$370.40
24	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Kingston woman failed to treat her dog's skin condition and failed to provide appropriate food to two dogs.	Guilty	$1,000.00	$701.25
25	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Kentville woman failed to treat her ponies' chronic laminitis.	Guilty	$750.00	$316.50
26	Cruelty offence in which a Pallara man cut off his puppy's ears with scissors.	Pending
27	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Yeronga man failed to provide treatment for his dog's broken leg.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$999.96
28	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Goodna man failed to provide treatment for his dog's demodectic mange.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$316.50
29	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Leyburn man failed to provide food, water and treatment for a variety of injuries and diseases with which his animals were afflicted.	Guilty	$3,500.00	$316.50
30	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Alton Downs woman refused veterinary treatment to a spinal fracture that her puppy had suffered. She subsequently tried to give the puppy away to a pet shop. When this was unsuccessful she took the puppy home where it remained untreated for approximately four days.	Pending
31	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Biddaddaba man failed to provide appropriate food to two horses that were under his care.	Withdrawn

*Outcome as of 30 June 2007

RSPCA Qld Prosecution Results 2006/2007

Pros No	Details of Offence	Outcome*	Fine	Costs
32	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Brighton man failed to provide treatment to injuries that his cat had sustained, which resulted in skin necrosis and abscesses over most of the cat's body.	Guilty	$2,500.00	$1,776.00
33	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Yarraman man failed to provide food, water and accommodation for his dog and also failed to provide treatment for his dog's anaemia.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$888.90
34	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Ebeneza man failed to provide treatment to an injury on his pony's leg.	Pending
35	Abandonment offence in which a Maryborough man abandoned his Pomeranian-cross dog.	Pending
36	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Caboolture woman failed to provide treatment for her kitten's injury.	Pending
37	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Atkinson's Dam woman failed to provide treatment for an injury to her pony's leg.	Pending
38	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Mt Morgan man failed to provide food and water to his three dogs and treatment for disease and injuries with which the dogs were afflicted.	Pending
39	Offence under Section 34 of the Act in which a Greenbank man was charged with possession of prohibited spurs and spur caps.	Deferred
40	Cruelty offence in which a Maryborough man killed a silky terrier in an inhumane way.	Deferred
41	Cruelty offences in which a Greenvale man hit two dogs on and around the head with a 4 lb hammer, causing them injuries, then placing them in a bag while they were still alive and throwing them into a refuse tip.	Pending
42	Cruelty offence in which a Westcourt man hit a Fox Terrier on the head with a broomstick causing swelling, haemorrhage of the cornea, and the right eyeball to protrude from its socket.	Pending
43	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Kallangur man failed to provide treatment to multiple fractures his dog had sustained.	Pending
Total			$39,950.00	$19,965.89

Prosecutions held over from previous years

2004/2005

39	Cruelty offence in which the defendants killed four cats and severely injured one cat by beating them with an iron bar.	Guilty	3 months imprisonment	$6,006.00
----	---	--------	-----------------------	------------

2005/2006

30	Breach of Duty of Care and Cruelty offences in which a Logan woman was cruel to two cats by placing them in a freezer and washing machine and failed to provide appropriate living conditions or treatment to her 18 cats.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$1,721.40
33	Cruelty Offence in which a Goodna Man threw his cat, resulting in the cat breaking its leg	Guilty		$250.00

*Outcome as of 30 June 2007

RSPCA Qld Prosecution Results 2006/2007

Prosecutions held over from previous years

Pros No	Details of Offence	Outcome*	Fine	Costs
36	Breach of Duty of Care and Cruelty offences in which a Gracemere man failed to provide food and water to a puppy and struck six puppies with a hammer.	Guilty	$2,000.00	$363.20
37	Offences in which a Townsville woman failed to exercise or provide treatment for her dog's injury.	Guilty	$4,000.00	$3,142.30
38	Abandonment offence in which a Greenvale man abandoned his two dogs.	Guilty	$1,200.00	$564.30
39	Cruelty offence in which a Brandon man failed to remove an electronic bark collar from his dog, causing it pain.	Guilty	$4,000.00	$64.30
40	Offences in which an Inala woman failed to provide appropriate food to her dogs and failed to comply with an Animal Welfare Direction.	Guilty	$750.00	$2,203.40
41	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Mutdapilly man failed to provide appropriate food to his horse.	Guilty	$2,500.00	$856.40
42	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a man failed to provide treatment to his horse's teeth, resulting in the horse wasting away until it was too weak to stand. Charge ammended to Cruelty.	Pending
43	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a man failed to treat his dog's skin disease and thyroid tumour.	Withdrawn
45	Breach of Duty of Care and Cruelty offences involving 52 cats and eight dogs, in which a woman inappropriately confined and/or failed to provide appropriate living conditions and failed to treat a variety of diseases. Further charges relating to donkeys covered.	Guilty on Duty of Care charge. Cruelty charge withdrawn	$3,000.00	$2,229.05
46	Breach of Duty of Care case in which a man failed to treat his dog's broken leg and failed to comply with an Animal Welfare Direction given to force him to treat his dog.	Guilty	$1,200.00	$829.75
47	Breach of Duty of Care case in which two Wellington Point women failed to provide food to their dog, resulting in it being too weak to stand.	Guilty	200 hours Comm Service	$315.40
48	Cruelty offence in which a man took no action to ease the suffering of his horse.	Withdrawn
49	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which a Bundamba man failed to provide food to his animals.	Guilty	$750.00	$315.00
50	Breach of Duty of Care offence in which an Eagleby woman failed to provide food to her dog or treat its tumour.	Guilty	$2,500.00	$797.40
51	Breach of Duty of Care offences in which a Murrarie man failed to treat his cat's broken leg and skin condition.	Guilty	$1,500.00	$1,721.40
Total			$24,900.00	$21,379.30

*Outcome as of 30 June 2007